was born in 1937 in Rowan County, North Carolina. Bob and his wife Kay make their home in Lexington, North Carolina, where Bob has a studio. Bob and Kay have three children and seven grandchildren. Selected honors include: the Albert Schweitzer medal for artistry; the American Forestry Award; North Carolina Public Servant of the Year; the Iron Eyes Cody Award; and the Outstanding Alumnus Award from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

At the age of 33, Bob was encouraged by Andrew Wyeth to devote himself to painting full-time. His first three solo exhibitions at New York's Hammer Galleries were sold out days before their openings. He has held numerous solo museum exhibitions, including the North Carolina Museum of Art in Raleigh, the Corcoran Gallery in Washington, D.C., the Frye Museum in Seattle, and the Isetan Gallery in Tokyo. Bob designed both the North Carolina and South Carolina statehood stamps, and the commemorative postcard marking the bicentennial of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

In 1990, Bob launched a comprehensive furniture line based on his designs. The World of Bob Timberlake® furniture collection became one of the most successful line introductions in the history of the industry. Bob has also received some of the industry's highest awards for his designs.

Following the success of The World of Bob Timberlake®, Bob founded Bob Timberlake, Inc. Today, under his watchful vision, Bob Timberlake, Inc. licenses products in over 20 categories. With this success has emerged additional furniture collections, Bob Timberlake Apparel and the expansions of Bob Timberlake retail galleries in Lexington (established 1977) and Blowing Rock, North Carolina.
